EXCELLENT ATTRACTIONS AT ENDEAVORS VISIT FRANKFORT. LOCAL MOVIE HOUSES

If you like real sure-enough thrills, a drama of mystery, suspense, action, romance, you certainly should see Marshall Neilen's master melodrama, "Go and Get It," featuring the beautiful and talented favorite, Agnes Ayers.

"Go and Get It," is a First National production in eight reels. It is said to be the best picture of its kind ever screened. It is a daring story of a newspaper reporter who was told to "go and get it." "It" was not so easy to get. But he got "it" just the same, and the girl, too.

We could tell you loads and loads about the marvel-mystery concerning "Go and Get It"—but what's the use. Don't let anyone else tell how good the picture is; see it and judge for yourself. Remember the date, "Go and Get It" next Monday.

When Max Brand wrote his novel "Traillin," he wrote a best seller. When William Fox made a motion picture based on this novel he made what has been described as a best seller. And this picture has as its star the inimitable and strenuous Tom Mix.

Mix, in "Traillin," which is to be seen at the Alamo and Grand tomorrow afternoon and night, has a singularly novel role—for him. He is an Easterner—a "tenderfoot." That is, he starts out that way; but he quickly becomes a revelation to the ranchers of the West when he invades that section in search of a man whom he believes slew his father. From the moment of his arrival he seems transformed.

JOINS THE NAVY

Ernest Hutchison, of Paris, if his luck holds out, will soon be a full-fledged "gob" in Uncle Sam's fine navy. Young Hutchison, with seven others, from different parts of the State, enlisted Tuesday at the Lexington naval recruiting station, in charge of Boatswain's Mate Bishop.

Several members of the various Christian Endeavor societies of Paris visited Frankfort Thanksgiving Day, and took part in the special program rendered at the State Reformatory, which was in charge of the State Association.

A special feature of the meeting was the musical program, which was in charge of Mrs. Edna Dryden, director of the Paris Christian church choir. The Endeavors of the State Union provided home-baked cakes for the prisoners. Four hundred cakes were solicited by Robt. Rose, of Paris, State vice-president of the organization. Several cakes were supplied by Paris people who are not members of the organization. Immediately following the noon meal a separate dinner was provided for the women inmates.

The principal speaker on the program, which began at 10:30 o'clock, was Rev. Dr. Benj. J. Bush, of Lexington. Others equally noted took part in the program. The prisoners had a thoroughly enjoyable time.

SPARKS FIRE ROOF

Sparks from the kitchen chimney at the home of Sam Kennedy, on Vine street Wednesday morning, caused an alarm to be sent in from Box 26. The department responded and extinguished the flames, which had consumed a few squares of shingles on the roof, that being the only damage.
